FIELD SECRETARY Y. P. M. MOVEMENT COMES TO GREENSBORO

Harry Wade Hicks of
New York Delivers
Three Addresses Sunday.

Harry Wade Hicks, of New York, general field secretary of the Young People's Missionary Movement, will arrive in the city this afternoon and will remain over Monday. Mr. Hicks will make three addresses in the city churches Sunday. During his stay in the city he will be at the Guilford.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Mr. Hicks will address the congregation of West Market Street Methodist church. He will be at the Church of the Covenant at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8 o'clock at night he will speak in Westminster Presbyterian church.

Mr. Hicks will speak especially to the young people and in his capacity as field secretary he has gathered a store of information that will be of great interest to all young people interested in the missionary work of the churches. The Greensboro delegates who attended the convention in Asheville last summer on their return were enthusiastic in their praise of Mr. Hicks and they will all no doubt be glad of the opportunity to hear him again.

The young people are urged to attend at least one of the services at which Mr. Hicks will speak and the mission study classes in the city are asked to attend every service if possible. The public in general is cordially invited to attend the three services at which he will speak.

Women Want to Go on Police Forces in Jersey

Trenton, N. J., March 17.—Women will be regular members of the police force of every New Jersey city and town next year if a bill pending in the Legislature here is passed. The executive committee of the Equal Franchise League has started a campaign in support of the bill and all the women's clubs in the State will join the movement. The measure provides for the appointment of women to the police force in every municipality in the State.

It is not framed with the intention of having the women police perform all the functions now performed by the male officers, but it specifies that they may be assigned for duty in dance halls, moving pictures theatres, public parks, recreation centers, etc.

In twelve cities in the United States the plan of having women policemen has been tried with excellent results, according to the supporters of the bill.

People Slow in Paying Taxes

Sheriff Jones and deputies have commenced the work preliminary to advertising property on which the taxes for 1910 have not been paid. The law requires that the costs be added to unpaid taxes after March 15 and that the property be sold on the first of May, the proceeds to be advertised for 30 days prior to the sale.

While it is possible that the commissioners may extend the time of sale to June 1 the sheriff has no alternative but to proceed with the advertising until he is officially notified to extend the sale and no action has yet been taken regarding the matter.

Taxes for 1910 were due on September 1st and the law allows until March 15 before cost is added. So far little over $100,000 has been paid in taxes by the taxpayers of the county. While little over half the total amount has been paid not half of the total number of taxpayers have settled with the collector.

Mr. Pugh of Raleigh is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. M. Pugh, on West Lee street.

COUNTRY CLUB IS GROWING

Membership Expected to Reach 150 Before
Charter is Issued.

The membership of the Greensboro Country Club is being increased daily, the list now numbering over 100. This is above the mark originally set and those who are working are hopeful of having a membership of 150 before the incorporation papers are secured. The following members have been added since the list of members was published some days ago:

Dr. C. I. Carlson, A. A. Fisher, S. Glenn Brown, Thos. R. Foust, R. R. King, W. G. Balsley, M. G. Newell, E. Sternberger, J. B. Harrison, Dr. W. P. Reaves, R. L. Justice, E. C. Land, Lawrence J. Duffy, E. J. Stafford, C. M. Vanstony, John M. Dick, Hall Houston, J. T. B. Shaw, Dr. J. S. Betts, L. Mosley, Dr. R. O. Dees, Lindsay H. Hopkins, F. S. Westbrook, C. W. Westbrook.

Negro Barn Burner Served Sentence

John Ward, the negro who was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for burning a barn belonging to Mr. Leonard, a farmer near the city, completed his term on Tuesday and was released, reaching Greensboro on Wednesday. Minnie Osborn, a degraded white woman, who went up at the same time for being implicated in the barn-burning, also completed her sentence and came back with Ward.

Ward has declared that he will get even with the men who caused him to serve the term in the pen. Before being carried to Raleigh to begin his sentence Ward told Deputy Sheriff Weatherly that if he ever got out he was going to kill him. Ward met Deputy Crutchfield yesterday morning and repeated to him that he was going to get even with the men who put him under arrest, or words to that effect. Deputies Weatherly and Crutchfield worked up the case against Ward and the Osborn woman and placed them under arrest.

Mr. Weatherly was seen last night and asked whether he thought the negro would attempt to carry out his threat. He replied that Ward was a mean negro of a sneaking nature and there was no telling what he would do. He stated that if Ward ever caught either Mr. Crutchfield or himself at a place where he thought they were unprepared he would not hesitate to do them bodily injury. He stated that he was going to keep his eye open and Ward would have to do some sneaking if he ever caught him unawares.

Dirt is Flying in Panama Canal

Washington, March 17.—The excavation in the central division of the Panama canal, including the great Culebra cut and the Chagres section during February was the greatest on record, being 1,409,338 cubic yards. Altogether in that division 71,035,522 yards have been excavated, leaving 26,091,495 yards to be removed.

Taking the canal as a whole up to March there had been taken out 131,829,436 yards, leaving to be excavated 50,708,330 yards.

The canal at the Pacific entrance is completed from deep water to a point opposite the Panama railroad wharf at Balboa, a distance of about five miles. Inland from this point the open water channel extends three miles, varying from thirty feet to 45 feet in depth, and certain sections have been excavated to its final width of 500 feet.

In the Atlantic entrance to the canal is completed to its full width of 500 feet.

The Gatun dam, the greatest in the world, is about sixty per cent completed. The concrete work on the locks at Pedro Miguel is more than 67 per cent completed and about 11 per cent of the concrete is in place at the Miraflores locks.

Bids for the six emergency dams to safeguard all of the permanent locks on the canal will be opened in Washington March 30.

FIRE MEN CONVICTED

State Association Will Meet in Charlotte
in May.

The annual meeting of the State Firemen's Association will be held in Charlotte on May 16, 17, 18, 19, and arrangements are being made for the greatest meeting in the history of the state organization of firefighters. President J. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, in a letter to the firemen of the several cities in the State, urges that every department be well represented.

The prize program will be more attractive than usual and extra prizes will be offered in both state and interstate contests. President McNeill states that he wants more companies to enter the tournament this year than ever before and he urges the teams to begin practice at once in order that they may get in the best possible shape.

The Greensboro firemen will send down a number of delegates, but it is not likely that the men will enter for any of the prizes. However, the matter will be discussed and one or more of the companies may decide to contest for one of the prizes.

Lewis West Guilty of Murder in First Degree, Says Jury.

Wilson, March 17.—In Wilson Superior court this afternoon at 2:40 o'clock the jury in the case of state vs. Lewis West and Ed. Purcell, alias Stetson, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree as to West and guilty of murder in the second degree as to Purcell. Judge Adams stated that he would not pronounce sentence today.

The argument was concluded about 12 o'clock this morning and Judge Adams began his charge to the jury. The case was given to the jury just before 1 o'clock and court took a recess until 2:30. Soon after court convened for the afternoon it was announced that a verdict had been reached. The prisoners were brought in and the verdict taken. A death like stillness pervaded the court room as the foreman of the jury announced the verdict. There was no demonstration. The prisoners showed no sign of nervousness and their expressions remained as stolid as ever when the words of guilty came from the lips of the juror.

DRUNKEN HOBO LOST SHAMROCK

Greensboro's Irish Policeman Who Got it Has Not Been Found.

William Howard, a decently dressed hobo, was locked up yesterday afternoon on the charge of being down on the railroad track in a drunken condition and unable to care for himself. Howard stated that he was from Utica, N. Y., and was enroute to southern points. He declared that he was an Irishman and seemed much put out because of the fact that an Irish policeman had stolen his shamrock. He declared to the officers that the reason he got in such a drunken condition was because of the theft of his piece of green and was very indignant over the thought that a policeman was at that time sporting the sprig of shamrock. The declaration of Howard that an Irish officer was wearing his shamrock caused some consternation and no little amusement among the officers. They at once began to speculate as to which officer was an Irishman and no agreement had been reached as to who Howard meant when the reporter left headquarters.

Women Whipped Revenue Officers in Lively Battle

Knoxville, Tenn., March 17.—A special from Bristol says one officer shot and fatally wounded, another with a finger shot off and a third frightened from the scene is the result of a battle between three women on one side and a trio of revenue officers on the other at Long Fork, near the Pike and Letcher county border in Kentucky Wednesday afternoon.

Deputy Marshal J. Martin Potter and Possemen Charles Smith and Carfield Smallwood, of Pikeville entered the Long Fork section to arrest Charles Tackitt, aged 20, charged with moon-shining. Tackitt, though armed, surrendered without resistance but his mother, Martha Tackitt, 60 years old, was angered at the presence of the officers and with her daughters, Nannie Tackitt, aged 16, and Bettie Tackitt, aged 18, concluded they would give the officers battle. The aged mother with a Colt's pistol and the eldest with a sixteen gauge shotgun opened fire upon the men. After several shots had been fired Smith fell mortally wounded, being shot through three times, while Smallwood lost a finger and had the crown of his hat pierced with bullets. Smith who was fatally wounded, is a member of one of the best families in the county. The boy was then taken in charge by his mother, not an officer being on the scene.

To Prevent Fraud on The Merchants

Through the efforts of the North Carolina Merchants' Association a bill entitled "An act to prevent fraud on Merchants" was passed by the General Assembly of North Carolina, recently adjourned. It is an important measure and everybody should know its intent. The following is a copy of the act.

Section 1. That if any person with intent to cheat and defraud shall solicit and obtain from any merchant any article of wearing apparel without paying for the same in advance and shall thereafter upon demand, refuse or fail to return the same to such merchant in unused and undamaged condition, or to pay for the same, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Evidence that a person has solicited a merchant to deliver to him any wearing apparel for examination or approval and has obtained the same upon such examination and thereafter upon demand, has refused or failed to return the same to such merchant, in unused and undamaged condition, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the intent of such person to defraud within the meaning of this statute.

Sec. 2. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

MECKLENBURG MAN ORDERED ARRESTED BY THE GOVERNOR

Chicken Fighting Farmer
Violated Parole
And is Re-arrested.

Charlotte, March 17.—Gov. W. W. Kitchin yesterday issued an order to the sheriff of Mecklenburg county ordering that officer to arrest E. C. Caton, the farmer of Sharon township, who after having been the recipient of a conditional pardon from the chief executive unlawfully engaged in chicken fighting on the Sabbath day and is alleged to have violated other laws, and to safely keep Caton until the charges can be more fully inquired into. If they are not denied within ten days Caton will be deemed guilty of a violation of his conditional pardon and will have to serve out the rest of his unexpired sentence of 18 months on the county chain gang. The accusations and denials, if there be any, will be heard before some one appointed, and all the evidence forwarded to Governor Kitchin.

History of the Case.

It will be remembered here that the good people of Sharon township were greatly indignant because of the alleged manner of living of Ed Caton, and when he was recently convicted in a magistrate's court of aiding and abetting a chicken fight near his home on the Sabbath, it was the straw which broke the camel's back, figuratively speaking.

Jealous of the reputation of their community the farmers of Carmel neighborhood gathered one afternoon in the pretty little Presbyterian church, within a mile of which lived Caton, and there passed resolutions severely condemning the man and praying that the chief executive would revoke the conditional pardon.

This petition was signed by scores and scores and it went to Gov. Kitchin some days ago. Daily since that time the people have waited for the governor's action. None thought for a moment but that the chief executive would act.

It will be seen by the governor's order to the sheriff that the present order does not in itself revoke the pardon. Under the law some one hears all evidence and this is sent to the governor within ten days. If no answer is made by Caton within that time, the governor deems him guilty and orders him to serve out the rest of his sentence.

It will also be noticed in the order that the sheriff is instructed to "safely keep Caton until the expiration of the time limit for the answer of the allegations. This, in effect, denies him bail, and he will be incarcerated in the county jail here until he has been given some kind of preliminary hearing.

Lives in Sharon.

Ed Caton has lived in Sharon township for a number of years. He was at one time regarded as a wealthy and industrious farmer. Across the line in South Carolina he was arrested for selling whiskey and served a sentence there. He has been tried on the charge of being a blind tiger here, but escaped conviction. Upon the charge of a more serious nature in which the woman named in the governor's order played a prominent part, he was convicted, however, and was ordered to the county roads for 18 months. The case was taken to the Supreme court but the decision of the trial court was sustained and Caton began his sentence. His wife, in the meanwhile, instituted divorce proceedings against him. It was something of a compromise between attorneys for each side that secured the conditional pardon. Caton, at the time of his conditional pardon being signed by the governor, however, was an escaped convict, having been away from the gang for several days. The chief executive was not aware of this when he signed the pardon.

Debs As Others See Him.

Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage paid the following tribute to Eugene V. Debs: "Among all the speakers I have ever heard there has not been one who came nearer to my idea of Abraham Lincoln than Eugene Debs."

POWELL'S VICTIM NOT DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED

Charles H. Smith Will Soon Recover---Powell
Active Member Baptist Church---Features of Tragedy The Talk of Raleigh.

Raleigh, March 17.—News from Charles H. Smith, of Sanford, who was wounded in the attempt made on his life and that of Duncan E. Melver so sensationally in the Union depot here last evening by H. H. Powell, who took his own life as a climax to his insane escapade, is that there is no probability of any very serious effects and that he will be out again within a week or two.

Preparations are being made for the funeral of Powell tomorrow, as soon as his son, H. H. Powell, Jr., of Johnson City, Tenn., can reach here. Mrs. Powell, widow of the unfortunate man, and John Powell, a son, came in this morning from Sanford and are arranging for the burial in the family burying ground, near Raleigh.

Powell was a native of this county and farmed near Raleigh for many years after his four years' service in the Civil war. Then he located in Aberdeen and later in Sanford, running the Sanford Inn. At the latter place for the past five years.

The remains are at the home of Mrs. Malloy, a half sister of Mrs. Powell, here, awaiting the funeral. Mr. Powell was an active member of the Baptist church of Sanford and the funeral will be conducted by the Baptist ministers of this city.

C. E. Convention at Burlington

Charlotte, N. C., March 16.—The annual convention of the Christian Endeavor State Union of North Carolina will be held in Burlington, March 31 to April 2. An interesting program has been arranged, and a very successful convention is anticipated. All Christian Endeavor societies in the State are urged to send delegates, and pastors of all denominations are cordially invited to be present. Except for the one dollar registration fee required from each delegate, entertainment during the convention will be free. Names of all who expect to attend should be sent at once to Rev. P. H. Fleming, D. D., Burlington.

SPECIAL SERMON

BY PASTOR KENDRICK.
At Forest Avenue Baptist church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. R. G. Kendrick, will preach a special sermon on "The First Day—and Not the Seventh—The Christian Sabbath." At the evening service there will be music by a quartet from the Greensboro Male Chorus. The public invited.

Two Erring Boys Are Taken Home

Benjamin Campen, of Goldsboro, arrived in the city last night, returning on the midnight train with his son, John Campen, and Walter Phillips, two boys about 13 years of age, who ran away from home Thursday morning. The boys were arrested in Charlotte Thursday night, being on 43 en route to Atlanta. They were brought to Greensboro last night by Officer McKnight and turned over to Mr. Campen.

It seems that Mr. Campen's son had received a whipping at school and fearing similar treatment when he reached home he induced the Phillips boy to leave town with him. He had saved up something like $50 and this was used to purchase tickets to Atlanta. The boys were soon missed and it was learned that they had bought tickets for Atlanta, telling the agent that they were going to Texas. Telegrams were sent ahead and the boys stopped in Charlotte.

Marvin W. Mann has returned from Richmond, Va., where he was engaged in the automobile business.

THE PRACTICAL PLAN FOR BUILDING ROADS NOW.

The Danbury Reporter gives the people of Stokes county some wholesome advice with reference to bond issues for public improvements. Here is what the Reporter had to say on this subject:

"It is all right for a private individual to be careful and economical in the management of his own affairs, avoiding debt and shunning obligations for the future. But this rule, when applied to great corporations or commonwealths or counties, works differently. No one would consider seriously a railway company that tried to extend its lines on its net earnings, without borrowed capital, obtained at low rates of interest. Without bond issues, the Southern railway company could never have opened the South to its present enormous developments. Without bond issues, the Panama canal would be only an interesting dream and never a reality. Without bond issues North Carolina would have no capital at Raleigh, no insane asylums nor penitentiary, while without the benefits of borrowed funds Stokes county would have never built the court house, jail and bridges. The policy of paying as you go when applied to county improvements, is a false policy. It would mean that we should never 'go,' but remain a backwoods and poverty-stricken section, shunned by capital and investment, and pointed at with scorn by the outside world."

The above is a sound business view of the bonding question. Corporations, counties or commonwealths should have their business affairs administered economically, and those in charge should see that every expenditure is for value received. This is good business policy for the individual and it is good for states and counties. The individual should avoid debt except for good reasons, and the same rule applies to corporations or political divisions of the country. Extravagance in individual or public expenditures should be vigorously avoided; but, while these are truths, over against them must be set forth the truth that public improvements in this age come largely through the acquisition of large sums of money for immediate expenditure, and the ordinary method of acquisition is by bond issues. When this proposition is applied to railways, public building operations or the Panama canal, as was done by the Reporter.

Few counties in North Carolina, or in the South, can afford to attempt to build roads by direct taxation, except at the rate of a very few miles per year. To undertake to raise $100,000 to $500,000 annually by direct taxation would place upon the people a burden of taxes which would be unbearable. The majority of counties, however, can afford to pay the interest on from one hundred thousand to a million dollars worth of bonds. By this method the money needed can be secured in a lump, the roads constructed in a few years at most, and the people almost immediately begin to reap the benefit of improved highways.

Building roads by direct taxation at the rate of a few miles annually is a process requiring too much time. The present and succeeding generations will have passed before the task is completed. We who are now living are entitled to the benefits of improved roads, if we display the good sense and business acumen necessary to secure them in this generation; and we will have committed no crime against posterity (as some citizens contend) if we leave to succeeding generations the debt incurred by their construction. We will leave the roads to posterity, as well as the debt, and posterity can afford to cancel the debt in payment for the highways; but this is not all. We will leave to succeeding generations a growing and developing country, a country rapidly becoming richer and more prosperous, in addition to the growth which will have already occurred and the wealth which will have accumulated by the time this generation has passed; and much of this increase in wealth and development of the country will be the direct result of the construction of improved highways.

This generation will do no violence to the rights of posterity by leaving a bonded debt incurred by the building of modern roads. No moral or legal wrong can be done future generations by this course.

The practical course to be pursued in road improvement in any county is to issue bonds for every dollar the county can afford in good roads and complete them as early as possible. The road funds, or money which the county can afford to raise by direct taxation, can then be applied to the payment of interest, to the maintenance of the dirt roads and to repairing the macadam roads. By this system real road satisfaction and continuous and increasing road benefits will be derived.

If Wilmington people can get together as successfully in settling all the propositions confronting that city as they did in declaring for commission government, the City-by-Wrightsville-Beach has it in its power to make a new record of growth during the next decade.

The Charlotte Observer takes note of the Montgomery Advertiser's discussion of a name for the 1911 baseball team, and says the Advertiser is halting between Bears and Boll Weevils in selecting a title for the team. In view of recent developments in Alabama, and especially in view of Montgomery's well known sentiments, how would Boozetown's Own fit in as a suggestion.

The size of the vote cast in the commission election in Wilmington has been cited as evidence of lack of interest among the people of that city in regard to the proposed change. The Star says that the vote cast was of average size, and that something of extraordinary interest is required to bring out a larger vote in that city. It is not probable that the best citizens of Wilmington, those who have business interests there and those who have the welfare of the city in mind and who value the privileges of the franchise, refrained to any considerable extent from participating in the commission election.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch, which, if we are not mistaken, is edited by "Deacon" Hemphill, a South Carolinian, revives the discussion of the birthplace of Andrew Jackson. A Tennesseean has written to the Times-Dispatch to direct attention to the fact that Jackson was born in North Carolina and is buried in Tennessee. The Richmond paper asserts that this is untrue, saying that it has been conclusively proven that Jackson was a native of South Carolina. While "Deacon" Hemphill is probably correct in claiming South Carolina as the birthplace of Jackson, we trust we will be permitted to gently remind him of the fact that Andrew Jackson left that State for Tennessee as soon as he discovered the vast difference in the two commonwealths.

The Wilmington Dispatch rejects the idea that all bills turned down by the recent Legislature are dead for all time. The Dispatch is correct. The majority of a Legislature is not always right. In fact, in these modern times, legislative majorities are wrong more often than the majority of the people, and the majority of the voters are not always right. No question of public importance, no problem of government or of civics or economics is settled until it is settled right. If the Legislature killed some bills which, in righteousness and justice to the people, ought to have been enacted into law, those bills are not dead but sleeping. They will be awakened by the influence of an aroused public conscience.

NEWSPAPER OPINION.

When Bryan Joined the Knights of Pythias.

During his visit to Boston last week Col. William Jennings Bryan made a brief address to the members of Horace Greely Lodge, Knights of Pythias, in which he said: "When I joined the Knights of Pythias, which was the first fraternity I ever joined, I was conscious of violating a kind of implied promise to my wife. When she was my sweetheart I remarked to her once that I didn't belong to any secret societies and so was not liable to go away from home in the evening. I did not say it very loud and was not conscious that she paid any particular attention to my statement, but when I went home about daylight after joining the Knights I found that it was one of the most distinct recollections in her mind. Now I am a Mason, an Elk, an Eagle, a Woodman, a Highlander and many others. I have observed that all these fraternities are all built upon words, phrases and teachings which represent heart characteristics. They teach the things which bind us together. I believe these fraternities are among the most potent influences in bringing mankind together." Boston Post.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

Editor Daniels Announces His Position.
A Republican paper says: "It is very apparent that Editor Josephus Daniels is fast getting away from the conservative element of the party." The editor of this paper never belonged to that or any other wing, but has always opposed the stand-pat and promise-forgetting elements of the party, no matter by what name they are called.—Raleigh News and Observer.

That New Party.
One of the papers, we believe it was The Catawba County News, made the statement last week that there is taking shape a new political organization in this State composed of those citizens calling themselves progressive Democrats, and that Mr. Ed Justice of Greensboro is to be the leader of the organization.

We do not believe that there is room in North Carolina for another Democratic party, and we have no idea in the world that Mr. Justice would lend himself to any movement looking to that end. Mr. Justice is a little radical in his views, and he has blood in his eye for a railroad and other great corporations, but he is a loyal Democrat, and his father is Hon. M. H. Justice of the Supreme Court.

Such talk as the formation of a new party fills the air for a while every now and then, but it soon peters out. It is perhaps safe to say that these movements are usually promoted by men who have axes to grind. There is no general sentiment among the people for any such thing, and the man who commits himself is sure to be left stranded on the shore.—Thomasville Davidsonian.

As to the Speaks Reward.
The only reward offered for the capture of Moses Speaks, the High Point murderer, was $50 offered by the county commissioners of Guilford. The Guilford authorities, appreciating the efforts of the Gregory brothers, who captured Speaks and were seriously wounded by him, decided to give them the reward of $50 and to pay their doctor's bill; and in addition Sheriff Jones, of Guilford, is endeavoring to raise a fund to further reward the Gregorys. But before the $50 could be paid to the Gregorys comes Sheriff Fletcher, of Yadkin, and demands part of the reward. The Yadkin sheriff arrived and took Speaks in charge after the Gregorys had captured and bound him, and he says that inasmuch as he rode about 100 miles he thinks that he and the two deputies with him should be given $5 each. The Yadkin man may deserve something for his service, but inasmuch as he is sheriff and it is his business to apprehend criminals without reward or hope of reward, his pay should not come out of the meager reward offered. This demand of the Yadkin sheriff is an every day illustration of the perniciousness of the fee system. Being paid by fees county officers have learned to demand a fee every time they turn round, and the demands increase with the years.—Statesville Landmark.

The next time he met the old gentleman he asked him, "Well, uncle, what do you think of that book I gave you the other day?"

"I don't know who that 'ere Joe Miller is," indignantly responded Uncle Absalom, "but I do know he's a thief. He's got hold of a lot of my best stories and printed 'em, consarn him!"

In Our Window Will Be Explained Monday Night at 8:30 O'clock.

In displaying Glason in our window we have practiced a deceit. But have we? Of course, that is a point to which we do not yet plead guilty. But even in causing conjecture—we have done that which is not in the program of our policies.

Ours is such a straight and narrow path of honest purpose—in our advertising—in our merchandising—in our popularizing—that we needs must explain—but then we cannot without telling.

Why Is Glason?

Just a little entertainment to attract you as you pass—to prove more particularly that even as we buy and sell—we do not think that business after all is such a serious matter—not our business. "A little nonsense now and then"—you know.

WHY NOT GIVE MOTHER A REST?

She Deserves Her Vacation as Much as Does Any One Else.

YEARS ago, when Mary E. Wilkins wrote "The Revolt of Mother," the reading world gasped, sat up and took notice of "mother's" claims to consideration. Now it is becoming understood generally that the woman head of the family deserves her annual period of rest quite as much as does the salary earner or income producer. Months before the summer season, it is declared, is none too soon for the mother of the house to begin planning for her vacation.

Can you think of any one who needs a complete change and relaxation more than the average wife and mother? Can you think of any one whose work is more taxing, more continual and more of a strain on body, mind and spirit than the work that falls to the lot of her "who serves because she loves?"

The husband and father gets his two weeks, and if he is fortunate he may get more. But no matter how much he gets he does get something, and he usually is wise enough to play as hard as he can during it, and he returns to his work with fresh strength and renewed interest.

How much more the woman in the home needs a change! She needs a new point of view. She needs to drop the daily worries for a little while and to have a care free, happy time. She needs a complete rest. The woman in business gets a vacation. Why not the woman at home?

So many women fail to realize that their good spirits and animation mean more in the general happiness of the home than almost any other one asset. And yet they allow themselves to become stale, to become bored and narrow just because they think they cannot afford the time or the money to take two or three weeks off. If they but realize it such an expenditure of time and money is not extravagant, but the acme of wisdom.

Of course you can do it if you make up your mind to it. Plan now whether you will take it in the spring, summer or fall. Plan what you will do and then quietly do it. And be sure that you have two unbroken weeks at least.

Champion Woman Skater.

Probably in no other sport or pastime is the "poetry of motion" so well illustrated as in skating. Many persons believe that even dancing is not to be compared for grace and ease with the skillful use of the steel runners. For women skating is an excellent sport. It is not strenuous enough to be harmful, and it affords a pretty miss or comely matron the very best of opportunities of displaying whatever grace kind Mother Nature has endowed her with. Figure skating is especially good for women. Some of the best figure skaters of the country are women. In recent years society folks have taken up this branch of sport, glorying in their skill in cutting fancy figures on the ice.

One of the best known of the women skaters of the country is Miss Cummings of Minneapolis. Her skating was one of the features of the recent International amateur skating tournament at Saranac Lake, N. Y. Miss Cummings is the champion woman fancy skater of America, having won a dozen or more prizes in tournaments and competitions.

NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL

Supreme Court Hears Case Against Raleigh Mayor And Chief.

Raleigh, March 17.—Argument was concluded today in the Supreme court on the appeal of J. Sherwood Upchurch and W. H. Brewer, in their suit against Mayor J. S. Wynne and Chief of Police J. P. Stell for respectively $25,000 and $10,000 damages for the closing of the Academy of Music against "The Girl from Rector's" some months ago. The case came up on an appeal from demurrer by the defendants to the sufficiency of the complaints which alleged false imprisonment as the grounds for the damages, in that acting under orders from Mayor Wynne the chief of police took charge of the Academy and on the refusal of Manager Upchurch and Assistant Manager Brewer to deliver keys and other appliances and control to the officers they were locked for a short while in the city prison.

Charters Granted.

There were charters today for six new corporations, one of the principal among them being the French Broad Manufacturing Co., of Cargay, Buncombe county, capital $100,000, by F. L. Fuller, John F. Wiley and others for a general textile business including finishing mills. The others are the Carolina Farming and Realty Co., Southport, capital $200,000 by R. C. Cool, E. C. Alwood, and Robert Runk for dealing in real estate, developing farm lands and similar undertakings; the Windsor Manufacturing Co., of Windsor, capital $25,000, by J. H. White and others for lumber and woodworking and machine shops business; the Bennett-Liles Co., Wadesboro, capital $100,000, by H. H. Liles, Frank Bennett and others for mercantile business; the Spence-Bathwell Co., Elizabeth City, capital $10,000, by J. C. Spence and others for mercantile business and the Foy-Shenwell Co. (Inc.) of Lexington, capital $125,000, by Demot Shenwell, J. E. Joy and others for general insurance agency and real estate.

Contending For Better Train Service.

The corporation commission considered today for some time the petition for the requirement for the Norfolk-Goldsboro shoo-fly to be continued to Wilmington, thereby giving the Goldsboro-Wilmington section of road an additional train service that would leave Wilmington in the early morning and arrive there from Norfolk around midnight. The commission has reached no decision in the matter yet.

The commission is notified by the Seaboard Air Line that the company will on April 2 put in operation an extended run from the Raleigh-Norlina shoo fly to Weldon for six months to demonstrate whether or not it will pay expenses. The company proposed to resist the effort to require the run to be extended south of Raleigh to Hamlet and Sanford, claiming that there is no possibility of this paying anything like the expense.

Taxed the Bachelors.

A tax on bachelors was imposed in England in 1695, and it continued in operation till 1706. William III. wanted money to carry on the war with France, and this was an easy task of raising it. Every bachelor of twenty-five and every childless widower of five years' standing had to pay a minimum tax of a shilling a year for five years, rising according to the social standing of the taxpayer. Moreover, a tax was levied in the case of all births, marriages and burials, this also graduated according to rank. Toward the end of the eighteenth century unmarried men over twenty-one who had servants had to pay extra taxation and later on to contribute a greater proportion of the income tax.

Saved by a Joke.

Students of Edinburgh university who could not spell fell on evil days when Professor Traill, editor of a former edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, was an examiner.

According to Professor Knight's "Recollections," Professor Traill one day objected to a candidate for graduation, who was a native of Ceylon, on the ground of false spellings.

"Why, he actually spelled exceed with one 'e'!" said he. "Well," instantly replied Professor Henderson, who filled the chair of pathology in the university, "you should remember that he comes from the land of the Singalese."

The successful speculator watches the corners and keeps out of them.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS IN W. V. MOSS CASE

Counsel for W. V. Moss, who was arrested last Saturday on the charge of impersonating a revenue officer, yesterday appeared before Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Asheville, and secured a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Moss. The hearing on the writ will be in Asheville before Judge Pritchard Monday morning.

At the time of the preliminary hearing Hudson & Swift and David Stern, counsel for Moss, contended that the warrant did not charge an offense against the government, whereupon Commissioner Collins amended the warrant, the defense holding that the commissioner had no right to do this. They at once began preparations for the habeas corpus proceedings and yesterday morning Mr. Swift went before Judge Pritchard properly armed with papers.

The defense contends in the application for the writ that the defendant was held on insufficient evidence; that the warrant charged no offense against the government and that the commissioner had no grounds for amending the warrant and that the warrant as amended charged no offense; that granting the evidence introduced was true the government had failed to show that there was any intent to defraud either the government or a private individual.

The defendant will be carried to Asheville Sunday night and the witnesses examined before Commissioner Collins will go down also to testify before Judge Pritchard. Counsel for Moss are confident that the defendant will be released from custody by Judge Pritchard. It is understood that District Attorney Holton will also be on hand to present the government's side of the matter. At the preliminary hearing the government was not represented.

It is generally believed that Moss was on a big drunk and really did not know what he was doing at the time of the alleged impersonation. There is a difference of opinion, however, as to what he meant by acting as he did, especially in having cards printed and in stealing the badge of the general deputy collector of internal revenue.

If Moss is released as a result of the habeas corpus proceedings it is likely that he will be given a hearing at once on the charge of the larceny of the revenue officer's badge from the office of the Pierce Printing Company. This case will come up under the State laws, however.

Meeting Guilford Poultry Association.

At the regular meeting of the Guilford Poultry Association held last night in the Southern Life and Trust Company building a demonstration of egg testing was made by F. H. Nicholson. The egg tester is an instrument for testing eggs before placing in incubator or under hens. Many are familiar with the method of testing eggs after being in incubator a few days and at different stages after the first week but very few are aware that testing can be done before placing in machine. This latter method if properly carried out means a more careful selection in the outset and the results are a much larger per cent. of good strong chicks at hatching time, the tester discarding eggs showing weakness in organic matter upon which the chicks must depend for life and strength.

Mr. Nicholson has gone into co-partnership in the duck business with A. C. Rankin, northeast of town, and they are now filling orders in six different states from their flock at the latter's home place on North Buffalo creek.

This afternoon about 3 o'clock at Gardner's drug store they purpose to give a demonstration of testing and packing eggs, using the tester before mentioned.

WEDDING KNIVES.

They Were Once a Necessary Part of a Bride's Costume.

Of the many dainty and curious relics belonging to old wedding customs none is more interesting and beautiful in themselves than the once indispensable bride knives, specimens of which still linger here and there among the cabinets of old country houses in England.

Or you may discover a slender, quaint old pair of these ancient posy knives in their delicate, faded cases, hiding behind the glass in some sleepy provincial museum.

You scarcely realize as you examine them that without her wedding knives attached to her girdle the medieval and seventeenth century bride would hardly have considered herself befittingly dressed. So completely a part of the marriage costume were they and so important an item of the ritual of the ceremony that they once came to be considered almost as necessary to the orthodox marriage as the veil and ring themselves. The old plays teem with allusions to them.

And who can forget the figure of Juliet, wearing her wedding knives, as she stands in tragic anguish in the friar's cell, and again when she is about to take the sleeping potion? Shakespeare in the old quarto of 1597 made special reference to his heroine wearing them.

Of the hundred and one delicate trifles of the ancient wedding toilet few were invested with more tender fancies of mystic symbolism than these knives. There was first the idea of the severing of the knot of love and then the more practical suggested emblem of good housewifery and domestic policy.

They were not worn in England alone, but all over Europe wedding knives formed part of the bride's regular accouterments. The highest invention was often brought to bear upon their metal, brocade and shagreen cases and sheaths. In the old Flemish pictures they may be seen hanging from the ladies' girdles beside the bodkin, scissors and other personal articles of the new wife.

Very beautiful indeed are some of the quaint old blades and handles, and all were of superior quality and artistic ornament. As the rank of the bride rose so they became more elaborately chased, and sometimes they were jeweled to a standard of immense value. It is very curious to learn that many of the finest English specimens emanated even in those remote days from Sheffield.

The precise origin of the custom of wearing wedding knives is lost in obscurity, but their decline from favor seems to have set in after the reign of William and Mary. In the time of Anne and the early Georges the custom was already obsolete and archaic. There is something almost mysterious in the way in which these beautiful little mementos have completely vanished from modern usage, disappearing almost concurrently with the ill fated Stuarts.—London Observer

REV. D. M. LITAKER WRITES ABOUT THE BOY SCOUTS

Since The Telegram has kindly taken note of the Boy Scout movement by a number of references recently, I feel that possibly many people might like to know more about this new movement which is sweeping the country, and which, if well directed, may mean so much for the coming men in our homes.

This movement was originated in England about three years ago by General Sir Baden-Powell. One year ago it was brought to this country by Ernest Thompson Seton, who is Head Scout in America. Mr. Taft is the president and Mr. Roosevelt is the vice president of the American organization. The National Council includes such men as John Wanamaker, Jacob Riis, Admiral Dewey, Major-General Wood, Gifford Pinchot, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, Dan Beard, and others equally prominent.

To quote from its literature: "The Boy Scouts is an organization, the purpose of which is character building for boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen. It is an effort to get boys to appreciate the things about them, and to train them in self-reliance, manhood and good citizenship. The movement is not essentially military, but the military virtues of discipline, obedience, neatness, and order are scout virtues. Endurance, self-reliance, self-control and an effort to help someone else are scout objectives. Every activity that lends itself to these aims is good scoutcraft." The Scout's oath which is taken on entrance is as follows: "On my honor I promise that I will do my best, 1. To do my duty to God and my country; 2. To help other people at all times; 3. To obey the scout law." The Scout law requires among other things, unquestioned obedience to officers and parents, doing a good turn for someone every day, and acting on honor in all things.

Those who originated the movement and have charge of it emphasize the fact that it is not a military organization. It is military only for discipline and for the purpose of the better handling of a crowd of boys. It stands distinctly for peace and not for war. The true scout is a soldier in the sense that he is battling for manhood and character against the moral foes of boyhood. The short swords and bayonets which our boys carry are unauthorized. Weapons of all kinds are strictly forbidden. The scout takes an obligation not to hurt even an animal, and promises to be kind to all living things.

The uniform is not required, but all the boys want it, and a local clothing company has been appointed official outfitter.

The organizations locally are effected through a Scout Master who is commissioned by the national council. This Scout Master has the personal oversight of a Troop. A Troop is made up of three or more Patrols of ten boys each. Each patrol has a leader appointed by the Scout Master.

In this city there are two commissioned Scout Masters, Mr. Martin of the Y. M. C. A. and the writer. Mr. Martin has in his Troop five patrols of twenty boys, and the writer has in his Troop three patrols of thirty-two boys.

After a thorough study of the organization, and after a study of boys and their needs for twenty years in the ministry, I am convinced that the Boy Scout movement is the finest organization for boys, if well manned and rightly managed, that the world has yet invented.

The boys who approximately live up to its ideals, will be vastly helped in body, mind and morals.

Quaint Servian Customs.

A quaint custom obtains in Servia, where in some towns it is usual for the inhabitants to hang a dressed doll, and sometimes two or even three of them, in the principal window of the house. This indicates that there is living there a marriageable woman, sometimes more than one, who is willing and anxious to become a bride. Another Servian custom is that of hanging a small sheaf of grain outside the house. The superstition is that if the grain is stolen there will soon be a wedding in the house; if the lady dwelling within is anxious to wed the sheaf is hung low, quite within the reach of the suitor, who may possibly be as anxious to steal it as she is to have it stolen.

Fifteen Americans Executed.

Lexington, Ky., March 17.—The 15 Americans captured with the insurgents by Mexican forces in the recent battle at Casas Grandes were summarily executed.

This is the declaration in a letter written to friends here by Major George Zimmerman, of Madero's rebel forces. Zimmerman was one of the few Americans to escape capture during the fight.

Zimmerman was a lieutenant in the Madero ranks prior to the Casas Grandes battle. For his work as a member of the dynamite squad, he was promoted to the rank of major and given a command.

He is a nephew of Postmaster Zimmerman, of Lexington, and lived here some time.

Irishmen in America.

Washington, March 17.—Two million in round numbers is the approximate Irish-born population living in the United States. While these are not the official figures of the thirteenth census, it is a close estimate based upon the 1900 census and the immigration and emigration of Irish-born persons during the ten years following.

There were exactly 1,610,449 Irish-born in the United States in 1900. New York had the most, there being 425,533 in the Empire State; Massachusetts came second with 249,916; Pennsylvania third with 205,965; Illinois fourth with 114,565 and New Jersey fifth with 94,844.

Immigration from Ireland for the past ten years has been uniformly steady, averaging about 37,000 yearly.

NEWS OF SPORTS

Johnny McGraw, Greatest Waiter in History Ballroom

Miller Huggins, of the St. Louis Cardinals, was credited last season with drawing 116 bases on balls in 151 games played during the year. It was the first time that the National league officials gave out a record of bases on balls scored by the various players. The record made by Huggins was a good one, but it does not equal that put up by Manager John McGraw, of the Giants as far back as 1899, when the little corporal was the manager of the Baltimore Orioles.

According to the official scorer of the Baltimore club, McGraw did not fail to reach first base at least once in the first 64 games played that season. In 95 games his total of free passes secured from opposing pitchers amounted to 108.

During his career as a player McGraw was known as the best natural waiter in the game, having a fine eye that could measure distance accurately.

When Ned Hanlon took charge of the Baltimore team in 1893 McGraw was not a star by any means. He was the utility man on the team, and he had lots to learn. But McGraw had the brains. He loved baseball, which was the case with all the Baltimore players who became famous. Each of the big four—McGraw, Keeler, Jennings and Kelley—went into the game for the love of it and played with his brains as well as his hands. Each was willing to take Hanlon's advice and follow it out to the best of his ability.

McGraw being a natural waiter, Hanlon led him off for that season. But McGraw had his faults then, and on some occasions he did not wait. One day he had two balls and no strikes. Then a ball came over and Johnny hit it. He popped. When he reached the bench Hanlon said:

"Why Mack, that ain't the kind of baseball you play."

McGraw flared up at once and remarked, "Why don't you call 'So-and-So' when he don't look them over?"

To this Hanlon answered:

"You don't think 'So-and-So' is in your class, do you? You are the sort of fellow who should go ahead in the game and profit by the brains you have. If you play the game like the man you mentioned, you can not expect to become a greater star."

That was enough. One word or a hint was sufficient for McGraw. He caught the bait and became the peer of waiters.

When Hugh Jennings came to Hanlon he had the bad habit of stepping away from the plate. Hanlon kept plugging at him until he broke Hughey of the weakness. From a poor batter Hugh developed until he stood up all ways and either laced them out or took the sphere in his ribs or on the arm or, in fact, any spot that the twirler cared to hit, just as long as the umpire permitted him to jog to the initial bag.

Willie Keeler had no bad habits at the bat. Willie could hit any ball that came within his reach. In fact, he often reached across the plate at balls which seemed too far away to be touched, but Willie always touched. He cultivated the art of placing his hits, which made him and McGraw the greatest hit-and-run team that the world can boast of. Keeler was a natural arm batter.

Joe Kelley, in Hanlon's opinion, was a great natural ball player, who could either drive the ball or bunt, and used his head every time he went up to drive in the runs, which was his duty.

GOSSIP OF THE STAGE.

Madame Sherry is to be produced in London.

The New Winter Garden in New York is to open this week.

Everywoman is such a success in New York that it is to remain until the end of the season.

Robert Hitchens' novel, The Garden of Allah, will be dramatized and produced by the Licher Company. The scene is laid in the desert of Sahara.

Dorothy Russell, the daughter of Lilian Russell, is to become a dramatic star. She is now Mrs. Dunsmuir, the wife of a millionaire, who owns valuable gold mines in Peru.

The Littlest Rebel, by Edward Peple, in which Dustin Farnum has been starring in vanderbilt, is to be made into a four-act drama, and Dustin and William Farnum will be co-stars in the production under the management of A. H. Woods.

The company that is supporting William H. Crane includes several well-known people. There is Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, than whom no one on the American stage can impersonate sweet-faced, lovable old ladies better. Louis Massen, who went to London earlier this season to appear in "Decorating Clementine," is one of the members. Of the younger members, Miss Millicent Evans comes first, as leading woman. It was in the title role of "The Blue Mouse" that Miss Evans made her biggest hit. Henry Miller, Jr., Macey Harlan and Harrison Ford are in the cast. Mr. Miller is said to have inherited not only the looks but also the ability of his father.

Shirley Kellogg says that women are careful to make their faces and figures attractive, yet are usually neglectful of their arms and shoulders. "It is rarely that one finds a beautiful pair of arms or shoulders," said Miss Kellogg, "while pretty faces are common enough. Indeed, the beauty of hundreds of women is marred because they feel that as the arm is usually covered, there is no reason why they should take particular care of it. I will wager that among a hundred women who are considered beautiful fewer than 10 have arms with the least pretense to physical perfection."

ONE WEAK SPOT

Most Greensboro People Have a Weak Spot and Too Often It's the Back. Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help—For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys.

Are for backache and urinary ills. Good proof of their merit in the following statement.

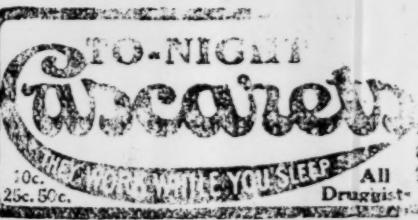

Mrs. J. W. Pettigrew, Main St., Reidsville, N. C., says: "I continue to think Doan's Kidney Pills an excellent remedy for the kidneys and gladly verify the statement I gave in their praise nearly three years ago. For several years I had kidney complaint and there was a dull ache across the small of my back and in my head. I often felt worn out and was miserable in every way, when I got Doan's Kidney Pills. They lived up to the claims made for them, restoring me to good health." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. THE ADVICE OF A FRIEND

Given to Those Who Need It. San Francisco, Cal.—"To anyone who is run-down or who needs a good blood purifier, I want to recommend Vinol the great red liver and iron tonic. I was run-down, feeling badly and only weighed about 140 pounds. I took a course of Vinol—it purified my blood, gave me a fine appetite, and built me right up. Now I am well and strong, weigh 175 pounds, and, in fact, never felt better in my life." John S. Charles, 3264 17th St., San Francisco, Cal. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.) Vinol is a delicious combination of the health-giving properties of the cod's liver, with the grease eliminated, and with iron added, blended in a mild palatable wine.

If your blood is poor or sluggish, your appetite poor, your digestion weak, or your vitality not up to the standard, or if you are suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchial troubles, try a bottle of Vinol with understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. It could not do what all these people claim it did for them if it was not honest. Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

HOGG-MASTIN.

Guilford College, March 16.—That was a very beautiful wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mastin here yesterday, when their daughter, Miss Mary Alma, was united in marriage to Mr. John H. Hogg of Bluffton, Ind. A number of the friends of the family in the village were present. There were in attendance from a distance Mrs. M. C. Call, Misses Bessie Transou, Edith Perry and Agnes Walters of Wilkesboro, Miss Carrie Transou of Winston-Salem, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Transou of Greensboro, and Miss E. McDonald of Charlotte.

Miss Mattie Mastin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Noah Myers of Winston-Salem was best man. Miss Edith Perry played the wedding march and Miss Agnes Walters sang, "All for You." Little Elizabeth Transou, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Dawson.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents from friends and relatives, one a nice silver set from the Wilkes county bar and county officials, where Miss Mastin had been court stenographer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogg will be at home, Bluffton, Ind., after March 25th.

"Gentlemen: Last night our daughter, age five years, was taken suddenly with pneumonia. We used 1-2 box of Mother's Joy as directed, and today she is almost well, thanks to the good remedy so near at hand and so cheap. This was a violent case, and hope you succeed. 520 Laura avenue."

Boston, Mass., March 17.—Clergymen are opposing the bill to permit this city to appropriate $50,000 annually to the Boston Museum because of the nude work of art it contains.

How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. It's the best Salve in the world for sores, ulcers, eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, bruises, cold sores. International Press Bible Question Club

We commence today the publication of a series of suggestive questions on the International Sunday School Lessons. For some time past these weekly questions have been stirring a great deal of national interest. They are published in nearly a thousand newspaper towns and are studied by millions of readers. They are received warmly by the public and enthusiastically endorsed by clergymen of all the churches. Sunday school superintendents, teachers, and adult Bible class scholars use them in every town where they are published, and the general public is much interested.

Contracting for this unique Bible study question service forms the Telegram and its readers into a local club of one of the classes of the International Press Bible Question Club, and gives the right for all our readers to compete for some very valuable prizes. There are four classes organized each year composed of the newspapers which take up the publication of these questions at four different periods, viz: Those that commence April-June are Class A; July-September are Class B; October-December are Class C; and January-March are Class D. Hence the Telegram local club belongs to Class D. There are fifty valuable prizes to be given to our Class: Five solid gold medals, five sterling silver medals, five teachers' Bibles, price $5.50 each, thirty-five copies of the book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 each. The medals are specially designed and engraved and each will be inscribed with the name of the winner. The conditions of the contest are so simple that any person can comply with them. The contest will not commence until the questions have been published thirteen weeks, in order to give everybody a chance to become familiar with them. One condition is that the questions must be read each week and as the Telegram will be necessary for this, you had better send in your subscription on the attached coupon.

Early Rising.

"Doctor," said a lean and languid patient, "I can't get up early in the morning." "Oh, yes, you can," replied the doctor, "if you will follow my advice. What is your usual hour of rising?" "Nine o'clock," the patient answered. "Well, get up half an hour later every day, and in about a month you will find yourself rising at 4 o'clock in the morning!"

Two Ways.

Defeated Pug—I weighed in all right before the fight. Backer—Maybe you did. But you certainly didn't wade in during the fight!—Puck.

The man who does nothing himself is never at a loss when it comes to advising others what to do.

"Is it true your student lodger is studying astronomy?" "Well, I think he must be. He sleeps all day, but at night he is always out"—Fliegende Blaetter.

A Mother's Love wisely directed, will cause her to give to her little ones only the most wholesome and beneficial remedies and only when actually needed, and the well-informed mother uses only the pleasant and gentle laxative remedy—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—when a laxative is required, as it is wholly free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS

(Copyright 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.) Defeat Through Drunkenness, (Temperance Lesson.) I Kings xx: 12-21.

Golden Text—It is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink. Prov. xxxi:4.

(1) What is the general effect of drinking on kings and princes?

(2) What battles can you mention that have been lost, or wars which have been jeopardized through drink?

(3) What great men can you recall who have been ruined through drink?

(4) Verse 12—Who was Benhadad and what were the circumstances which "this message" referred to?

(5) Is a king, the general of an army, a business man, or any other man, when under the influence of drink, in a condition to wisely decide on great issues? Why?

(6) Would this war, which proved so disastrous to Benhadad, likely have taken place if he had not been influenced by drink?

(7) Verses 13-14—How did this prophet know, in advance, that Ahab was going to conquer the powerful Benhadad?

(8) Which army is more likely to win, in a battle, and why, one of ten thousand with its officers drunk, or one of five thousand with its officers sober, other things being equal?

(9) What part does God, or the laws of God, play in modern warfare?

(10) Verses 15-16—What forces were working in favor of Ahab, and what forces working against Benhadad?

(11) What are the chances for a man founding a happy family, conducting a successful business, or winning in any battle, if he "drinks himself drunk," and consorts with men who drink?

(12) What proportion of sensuous men attain distinction and hold the love and confidence of the community?

(13) Verses 17-18—Wherein were the instructions of Benhadad worthy of a drunken man?

(14) If Benhadad had been sober what would his instructions probably have been?

(15) How does drink influence the judgment, the motives and the ambitions of a man?

(16) Verses 19-21—What would you say was the chief cause of the defeat of the Syrians?

(17) There are many foes today which conquer and defeat men, including strong drink. Say which you consider the worst and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(18) How many men do you personally know who have been defeated by drink and how many do you know who have been injured by total abstinence?

HER FRUGAL LUNCH.

And the Pathos of the Little Child's Humble Pride.

In one of the biggest of Cleveland's public schools some of the smaller children, children of the primary grade, bring their lunches when they come in the morning.

A large proportion of the pupils in the building are children of foreign parentage, quite a number are of foreign birth, and many of them are from humble homes, where the food is the simplest and the mouths are many.

Among these little lunch bearers the teacher in a certain room had her attention drawn to a girl whose noontime feast seemed invariably the same—a thick slice of black bread and a boiled egg. They were neatly wrapped in a clean square of paper, and, while the other lunches might vary in material, this modest spread included just the two articles mentioned.

There is pride in little hearts even over so small a matter as the simplest of simple luncheons, and, while the child with only a sandwich envies the child with the cakes and the orange, this child with the black bread and the boiled egg seemed to be fully satisfied with her portion, for an egg, look you, can be both necessity and luxury.

And so during the noon hour the child would contentedly seek a dusky corner of the school basement and there, quite alone, dispose of the frugal meal.

But one day a dreadful thing happened. As the child opened the package the egg slipped from her fingers and fell to the floor!

And, lo, it wasn't a real egg at all, but just an imitation, an earthenware egg, a make believe egg that is sometimes called a nest egg!

When it fell it struck the floor with a sharp crack that drew general attention. And the unhappy child burst into tears.

Here was an end to the little deception that had ministered to her childish pride and placed her on a level with her more fortunate schoolmates. Here was the humiliating wreck of the simple subterfuge that had helped conceal the grinding poverty of the child's home.

Small wonder then that the tears ran down her cheeks and that the proud little heart long refused to be comforted.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Caddie's Comment.

They were out together in the early morning and had the golf links to themselves. A curious pair—a portly city merchant new to the game, with an immense idea of his own skill and importance, and his caddie, a typical street gamin, small, but sharp as a needle. The desperate efforts of his employer to make a record drive caused the caddie some amusement, mingled with pity and contempt, yet he held his peace. At last, however, after the novice had plowed up the turf all around the ball without moving it, the gamin blurted out:

"Guv'nor, if I'd known you was coming to dig for worms I'd ha' brought a spade. We'd ha' done it quicker."—London Tit-Bits.

Brown-Belk Co.HOW ABOUT THIS?

You wouldn't ask your neighbor to build a house for you, if he was not equipped and had had no experience? Naturally you would go to a builder or contractor.

Then why ask a neighbor or friend to serve as executor or trustee of your estate? He is busy. He is inexperienced.

The Greensboro Loan & Trust Co.

makes it a specialty to act as trustee or executor, guardian or administrator. It charges the same as the inexperienced individual would charge—the law fixes the price.
